

PREPS FOOTBALL PLAYOFFS!: Plymouth-Canton band seeks 4th national crown

Contributed by
Saturday, 27 October 2007

The Plymouth-Canton marching band tallied an almost perfect score in a competition last Saturday in Clarkston. But almost perfect isn't good enough when you've been state champions for the last 14 years and have an excellent chance of keeping the crown in next week's state band finals at Ford Field.

The Plymouth-Canton marching band tallied an almost perfect score in a competition last Saturday in Clarkston. But almost perfect isn't good enough when you've been state champions for the last 14 years and have an excellent chance of keeping the crown in next week's state band finals at Ford Field.

Read more at: <http://www.freep.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=/20071027/NEWS06/710270307/1001/rss01>.